What Does It Mean to Work for the Public Interest?

Yale law students and undergraduates will speak about their experiences as Liman Summer Fellows, the impact of their work, and how you can apply for a 2018 Liman Summer Fellowship

Eva Branson, Yale ‘18
Orleans Public Defenders
Louisiana

Adam Burton, Yale ‘18
Legal Aid Society
Brooklyn, NY

Jun Yan Chua, Yale ‘18
New York District Attorney

Sydney Daniels, Yale ‘19
Public Defender Service
Washington, DC,

Andrea Fleming, Yale ‘18
MFY Legal Services
New York, NY

Jessie Garland, YLS ‘19
Vera Institute of Justice
Washington, DC

Ellis Liang, YLS ‘19
Veterans Legal Clinic
Harvard Law School
Boston, MA

Aseem Mehta, YLS ‘21
Vera Institute of Justice
New York, NY

Ela Naegele, YLS ‘21
Public Counsel Law Center
Los Angeles, CA

Rohan Naik, Yale ‘18
ProPublic
Documenting Hate Project
New York, NY

Malina Simard-Halm, Yale ‘18
Legal Action Center
New York, NY

Scott Stern, YLS ‘21
Department of Justice
Civil Rights Division
Washington, DC

Ashtan Towles, Yale ‘18
All Our Kin
New Haven, CT

Chris Zheng, YLS ‘19
Immigration and Refugee Clinic
Harvard Law School
Cambridge, MA

Welcome Remarks
Judith Resnik, Arthur Liman Professor of Law, YLS
Anna VanCleave, Director, Arthur Liman Center, YLS

Monday, November 13, 2017
7 to 8 p.m.
Common Room, Davenport College

Desserts and beverages will be served.